

Do you enjoy contemporary Christian music? Do you like working with people to develop their God-given gifts of music? Are you good at coordinating ways to enhance worship services with the gift of music?

Luther Memorial Lutheran Church in Omaha (61st and Western) seeks energetic, confident musician to lead the Praise Band. The band is comprised of volunteers from the congregation who enjoy music and generally consists of guitars, keyboard, and voices. Band members possess varying levels of musical skill and ability and are unified in faith and possess a passion leading the worship experience for the 11:00 AM Spirit Alive Service through the ministry of music. Band members generally rehearse on Wednesday evenings and warm up on Sunday mornings.

Strong interpersonal skills are required. Preference will be given to individuals who have experience in church music, as well as the ability to sing and play multiple instruments (i.e., guitar, keyboard). Musical training (such as of Bachelor's degree in music, church music, music education or related field) is also preferred. Music students whose degree is in-progress will be considered.
