October 9, 2018 – Omaha, Nebraska – The Lutheran Planned Giving Services Board of Directors is pleased to announce Sarah Jank Callahan as its new Executive Director.

Callahan comes to Lutheran Planned Giving Services with a background in the financial services industry as well as professional fundraising. Most recently, she built a practice at Thrivent Financial in Omaha. During that time, she worked with families in Nebraska and Iowa with generational transition and estate planning. She previously served as the Director of Advancement at Marian High School, helping to complete a $12.1 million capital campaign to add a Performing Arts Center, STEM lab, and Computer Collaboration Lab to the campus. She also was the Director of Development of Opera Omaha. She received her undergraduate degree in music and her master's in business administration from Valparaiso University in Valparaiso, Indiana.

In her role as Executive Director, Callahan is responsible for Lutheran Planned Giving Service's day-to-day operations, coordinating and supporting the ministries' major cash and deferred giving programs for individual donors, and for educational and support services in gift planning programs to individuals, congregations, ministries and churchwide units of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) within the Nebraska Synod.

Ministry Partners of Lutheran Planned Giving Services include Blue Valley Lutheran Homes, the ELCA Foundation, Good Shepherd Lutheran Community, Immanuel, Lutheran Family Services of NE, the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, Midland University, Mosaic, NE Lutheran Campus Ministry, NE Lutheran Outdoor Ministries, NE Synod ELCA, Oaks Indian Mission, Tabitha, and Wartburg Theological Seminary.

Callahan says, "I'm excited for the opportunity to support the efforts of all of these wonderful ministries by assisting people in making lifetime financial gifts."
