Discerning God's Call to Spiritual Direction

www.seekingthespiritwithin.org

Because of an increasing desire among leaders for spiritual formation and retreats, the Nebraska Synod offers Spiritual Direction Formation through Seeking the Spirit Within. Consider exploring your call to such ministry and learn how you might enter the program of certification and what is required.

Who should attend?

- Are you on a personal spiritual journey, committed to a faithful prayer life, and will reflect on and share your inner experience?
- Do people seem drawn to you for a discussion of spiritual questions?
- Is God calling you to companion others on their spiritual journey?
- Do you seek a strong foundation from which to refine your skills to respond to God's call?

If you answered "yes" to these questions, consider attending this exploration retreat!

Program Leadership

Deacon Connie R. Stover,
Certified Spiritual Director

Connie's life's ministry has been focused on cultivating growth in love and understanding of herself and others, the world in which we live, and the God who invites us into relationship and wholeness. She served her local congregation for over 20 years, coordinating their education, youth, and volunteer ministries. She earned a M.S. degree from the University of Nebraska at Kearney and has fifteen years of experience in the private practice of agency counseling. She has served on the Nebraska Synod staff since 2004.

Connie is a member of First Lutheran Church in Kearney, Spiritual Directors International, and is currently serving as Director of Seeking the Spirit Within.
