Requested grant amount and its purpose (Maximum of $1,000 for new projects):

Have you ever applied for an ELCA World Hunger grant in the past? If so, were you a recipient?

Have you ever applied for a One Another grant in the past? If so, when?

If you have applied for One Another and your grant application was deferred, what measures have you taken to strengthen your project and/or funding request?

If you have previously received a One Another grant for this project, please explain the need for additional funding and describe what plans you have for making this ministry sustainable.

Please send all typed requests to jennifer.sharrick@gmail.com with One Another Grants and the Congregation Name/Synod Ministry in the subject line.

or

Please send all handwritten requests to:

Nebraska Synod, ELCA
ATTN: One Another for ELCA World Hunger
6757 Newport Ave., #200
Omaha, NE 68152

Grants are awarded twice a year, at Synod Assembly and at Theological Conference. After receiving a grant, a congregation or synod ministry must wait one year before reapplying. This rule also applies to projects, which are only eligible to receive one grant a year, regardless of the organization soliciting the grant.

If you have questions about One Another for World Hunger or wish to have someone come speak about ELCA World Hunger, feel free to contact Jenny Sharrick, Nebraska Synod ELCA Hunger Network Chair.
