

I.

Noun or phrase naming something about which you feel grief, anxiety, or anger

2. and 3.

Adjectives describing how you feel when you think about that situation

4. and 5.

Adjectives describing your honest and unvarnished feelings about God in light of this particular situation

6. and 7.

Verbs saying what you want God to do in this situation: to _____ and to _____

8. and 9.

Positive adjectives describing the God in whom you believe

10.

One past-tense verb summarizing how
God has shown up in your life before

Examples: nourished, surprised, embraced, saw, heard, understood, carried

11. and 12.

Adjectives describing how you felt when God showed up

13. and 14.

Two of your favorite names for God

To you, O Lord, I cry out.

To you, O Lord, I have lifted up _____.

My soul is _____ and _____.

How long, O Lord, will you be _____ and _____?

How long will you refuse my cries and reject my pleas?

Listen: _____ and _____.

For I know that you are _____ and _____.

I will remember how you _____ me.

I will not forget that, in your presence, my soul was _____ and _____.

This I will say in the presence of the congregation: You are _____ and _____.

God's steadfast love endures forever.