

1 - Land Ack and Land Back (2-hour workshop)

This class will introduce participants to the history and purpose of land acknowledgments, why they are important, as well as how and when groups and individuals should practice them, and how best to engage in the restorative justice practices.

2- Imagine Being Prepared for Disaster (2-hour workshop)

What do faith communities need to know about preparing for and responding to disasters in the most helpful and faithful ways? Hear stories from people who've been there, and questions and scenarios to talk through with your colleagues.

3 - Imagine Becoming a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) Congregation (1-hour workshop)

Do you have questions about becoming a Reconciling in Christ Congregation? Do you wonder if it's right for your congregation? Join this panel discussion to hear about their experiences and to learn about the steps of becoming RIC.

4 - Imagining Equitable Communities: Privilege Beads and other ways to understand the dynamics of power (1-hour workshop)

How do we help people understand the dynamics of power and privilege? In this workshop, you will participate in the privilege beads activity and discussion and learn about alternative approaches to teaching these dynamics.

5 - Imagine a Pivot in Ministry (1-hour workshop)

We know the church is being called into different ways of being. Join Bishop Scott Johnson and Dwight Zscheile (who will be with us virtually) as they discuss four key pivots the church is: posture, focus, structure, and leadership.

6- The Spirit is Moving: A Jazz Liturgy of Renewal (1-hour workshop)

This workshop will explore how jazz carries meaning through sound and how it intersects with Lutheran liturgical traditions, including through Jon Ailabouni's new liturgy setting entitled The Spirit is Moving: A Jazz Liturgy of Renewal.

7 - Imagining A Cross-Generational Model of Ministry (1-hour workshop)

We will explore what Cross+Generational Ministry is, what it is not, and how a congregation can look for ways to implement this ministry into the life of their congregational community.

8 - Imagining Peace and Justice in the Holy Land (1-hour workshop)

The Nebraska Synod has a long history of accompanying our siblings in the Holy Land. In the workshop, we'll review that history and explore how we can accompany people today through listening and actions.

9 - Imagining Creative Ideas for Use in Worship (1-hour workshop)

This workshop will offer new ways to share the Good News, lift up and pray for members of your congregation, and engage with the community. We will think outside the box to explore creative and cost-effective ideas.

10 - Imagining Life in our Companion Synods (1-hour workshop)

Grab a cup of coffee, pull up a chair, and spend time in informal conversation with the leaders of our companion synods. This is your chance to delve deeper into their keynote addresses or to learn more about the ministries they support.

11 - Grant Writing (1-hour workshop)

Discover the grants available to your congregation and receive helpful tips for applying.

12 - Community Action Poverty Simulation (Off-site, 4 hours)

Poverty is a reality for many individuals and families. But unless you've experienced poverty, it isn't easy to truly understand. The Community Action Poverty Simulation (CAPS) bridges that gap from misconception to understanding.

13 - A Firsthand Look at Mosaic (Off-site, 4 hours)

Spend the afternoon on the Mosaic campus at Axtell. You'll have the opportunity to help with a project on the campus, but there will also be time for a tour and conversation.

14 - Baking Bread and Building Community (Off-site, 4 hours)

Learn how to bake sourdough bread with Sal and Sol, and take home your own sourdough starter. While bread is baking, you'll hear more about campus ministry at UNK, including their "dinner church."

15 - Letter Writing and Blanket Tying

Stop by the table and write a letter to your state and national legislators as a part of Bread for the World's offering of letters to ensure an end to hunger in the U.S. and around the world -OR- Tie a fleece blanket to be donated to CHI Good Samaritan in Kearney (Used by the Chaplains as "blessing blankets").

Don't forget to visit the tables of the Nebraska Synod serving arms (in the hallway)